

When Vit Hits the Fan: The YO Surgical Video Competition

In collaboration with the ONE® Network, the Academy's YO Committee is launching the 2016 YO Surgical Video Competition, "When Vit Hits the Fan."

Everyone has had complications in surgery, some more gut-wrenching than others. The key is how you deal with it. So, how do YOU manage your surgical complications? Submit a video of a complication and how you handled it. The videos will be judged on content and production quality by the ONE Network Editorial Board and the YO Committee. The top three winners will be awarded some awesome prizes!

1st place: iPad Pro

2nd place: $500 Academy Voucher

3rd place: $250 Academy Voucher

The top 3 winners will also have the opportunity to present their video at the YO Program at AAO 2016 in Chicago on Sunday, October 16. Dr. Tom Oetting, Program Director at the University of Iowa, will moderate the video presentations and discussion.

Rules of Entry

- The contest is open to members in training and those within their first 5 years of practice.
- Videos should be submitted at www.aao.org/yo-video.
- In the Notes field, indicate your year in training or date of graduation and program of training.
- Deadline for submission: September 1, 2016.

Video Guidelines

- Maximum runtime: 3 minutes
- Preferred formats: MOV or MP4
- Minimum resolution: NTSC standard definition (720x480 pixels). We welcome widescreen (16:9) and higher definition files up to 1080p.
- Audio: All videos must be accompanied with a clear voice-over that narrates the footage. Musical soundtracks are discouraged.
- Copyrighted material: Make sure you have permission to use any included images, video, or audio in your submitted work. Original work is best.
