

EyeNet Corporate Lunches

EyeNet's mission of delivering trustworthy practical clinical information has made it the most well-respected, reliable news-magazine for ophthalmologists. Now, EyeNet expands its mission to include customized industry-sponsored educational events. An EyeNet Corporate Lunch is your ticket to providing programming of current interest to your desired audience at AAO 2016.

Prime time, prime location. Take advantage of this highly coveted lunch time-slot and convenient location onsite at AAO 2016 to attract the ophthalmologists you want to target.

Reputable partner. Capitalize on EyeNet's standing in the industry and the AAO's status as the premier association for ophthalmologists by partnering with EyeNet on this educational event.

Hassle-free. EyeNet will handle the logistics, including marketing, audience recruitment, food and beverage, and coordinating with the convention center and other vendors.

Your role. Determine topic selections, faculty, and program details (subject to review and approval by the Academy).
