

OUTSTANDING HUMANITARIAN SERVICE AWARD

Information and Nomination Procedures

Purpose

To recognize Academy members' participation in charitable activities, indigent care, community service and other humanitarian activities through a program of public service awards to be given by state ophthalmological societies and by the American Academy of Ophthalmology. Individuals must perform this public service in their capacity as an ophthalmologist.

Structure

1. Each State, Subspecialty, and Specialized Interest Ophthalmological society is encouraged to present an award for humanitarian activity by an ophthalmologist at their annual meeting.
2. Recipients of state awards and other Academy Awards are eligible for consideration by the Awards Committee to receive the Academy's Outstanding Humanitarian Service Award.

Qualifications and Criteria for Nomination

1. The nominee must be a Fellow or Member in good standing of the American Academy of Ophthalmology who has demonstrated a pattern of humanitarian service in the United States or abroad over a period of at least several years. Qualifying service might include, but is not limited to:
 - Free care to the indigent
 - Service in inner city, rural or international locations with disadvantaged persons
 - Care for underprivileged individuals of specific racial or ethnic background
 - Care in settings of high risk to the ophthalmologist
 2. The service must have been above and beyond the usual service commitment required by a sponsoring organization, or expected by virtue of the type of service involved.
 3. The service should have entailed personal sacrifice on the part of the ophthalmologist.
 4. The service must have been consonant with the principles of the Code of Ethics of the American Academy of Ophthalmology.
 5. Length of service must be sustained
 6. Only one such award may be given to an individual during his or her lifetime.

OUTSTANDING HUMANITARIAN SERVICE AWARD Information and Nomination Procedures

Nomination Procedures

1. A recipient of a state ophthalmological society public service award who was selected by a vote of its membership or a vote of the Board of Directors (or equivalent) of that organization may be nominated by that society.
2. Each nominating body must complete one Outstanding Humanitarian Service Award Nomination Form per nominee. Each nomination form should describe in detail the nature of the public service, the sustainability of service, the length and consistency of service, the scope of impact, and references who may be contacted.
3. At least three letters of recommendation must be included with the nomination form.
4. All forms must be typed. Hand written nomination forms will not be accepted. You may go to our website www.aao.org and complete an interactive nomination form online. For questions, please contact the Academy's Member Services by phone at (415) 561-8581, fax (415) 561-8575, or e-mail member_services@aao.org.
5. The deadline to receive nomination forms is March 30, 2012. The Awards Committee will recommend nominations for final approval. Recipients will be honored at the Opening Ceremony during the Academy's Annual Meeting.

Selection of Recipients

The Academy's Awards Committee will consider only those nominations that meet the qualifications criteria described above. In reviewing each nomination, the Awards Committee will verify references of the nominee, and if necessary gather additional information in making their determination.

Selection of recipients will be determined on the basis of factors including, but not limited to: intensity of service, continuity of service, length of service, need for the service, personal sacrifice of the ophthalmologist, and the recommendations of the nominating organization and/or individuals identified in the nomination form, or others whom the committee may consult.

A maximum of two recipients will be selected annually; therefore, not all nominees will receive the Outstanding Humanitarian Service Award.
