

American Academy of Ophthalmic Executives®

Table of Common Drugs

Updated October 2020. Subject to change. Visit aao.org/coding for updates.

HCPSC Office and Facility	Description	Units
J0585	Injection, onabotulinumtoxinA, 1 unit. Use this code for Botox medical, Botox cosmetic	As needed*
J0586	Injection, abobotulinumtoxinA, 5 units. Use this code for Dysport	As needed*
J0587	Injection, rimabotulinumtoxinB, 100 units. Use this code for Myobloc	As needed*
J0588	Injection, incobotulinumtoxinA, 1 unit Use this code for Xeomin	As needed*
J0702	Celestone	As needed
J1100	Dexamethasone	As needed
J1096	Dextenza Dexamethasone, lacrimal ophthalmic insert, 0.1 mg	4 units
J7351	Durysta	10 units
J9190	5-FU	1 unit
No J code for ophthalmic use Healon
J9250	Methotrexate (MTX)	10 units * Submit 1 unit + -JW 9 units
J1097	Omidria	4 units Most used in the facility setting
J7315	Mitomycin, ophthalmic, 0.2 mg	1 unit
J2787	Photrex Riboflavin 5 Phosphate, ophthalmic solution, up to 3ml	2 units
J3241	Tepezza Injection, teprotumumab-trbw, 10 mg, for intravenous use.	50 units * Be sure to correctly bill the units infused. Submit a second line with modifier -JW along with units wasted when less than 50 units are infused.
J3301	Triamcinalone (Kenalog)	As needed
J3370	Vancomycin	As needed
J7999	COMPOUNDED DRUGS (e.g. compounded syringe of Vancomycin, Cefazidime)	1 unit Indicate medication name(s) and dosage in item 19 of CMS-1500 or electronic equivalent

* Denotes that wastage should be indicated unique payer polices may have an expanded covered diagnosis list per medication.

obtain appropriate consent for off-label use. Visit omic.com for consent examples.