Dear Colleague,

I cordially invite you to attend AAO 2017, the most comprehensive ophthalmic meeting in all of ophthalmology. For four days, the American Academy of Ophthalmology’s annual meeting is the epicenter for the latest research, techniques and technologies—a truly can’t-miss event.

The exclusive education and resources for YOs at AAO 2017 is unparalleled. I encourage you to attend the 2017 YO Program, the premiere event for YOs. This two-part program will help you tackle your toughest clinical challenges as well as topics not covered in residency and fellowships, and introduce you to strategies that will successfully navigate you through your career. View the full 2017 YO Program description and schedule on pages 6 and 7 of this brochure.

Whether this is your first or fifth Academy annual meeting, use this brochure to help guide your meeting experience. You’ll find listings of daily YO lounge events as well as course recommendations hand-selected by the YO Committee. Plus, take advantage of special discounts available only to YOs.

On behalf of the YO Committee, we hope to see you in New Orleans.

Sincerely,

Purnima S. Patel, MD
Young Ophthalmologist Committee Chair
Atlanta, Ga.

CONTRIBUTE TO EYEWIKI®, WIN A TRIP TO MID-YEAR FORUM 2018

If you are an ophthalmology resident or currently in a fellowship in the United States, the American Academy of Ophthalmology encourages you to take advantage of the phenomenal online publishing opportunity EyeWiki provides.

Four residents and/or fellows who contribute to EyeWiki before Dec. 1, 2017, will win all-expenses-paid trips to the Academy’s Mid-Year Forum 2018 in Washington, D.C., April 18 – 21.

To enter the competition, simply write and submit a high-quality EyeWiki page in any of the following areas, and add your entry to the discussion page:

- Cataract/Refractive Surgery/Cornea/Anterior Segment
- Retina/Vitreous/Uveitis
- Glaucoma/Neuro-Ophthalmology
- Pediatrics/Strabismus/Oculoplastics/Orbit

Questions?
Email eyewiki@aao.org.

CONTRIBUTE TO EYEWIKI, WIN ACADEMY ONLINE PRODUCTS

If you are an ophthalmologist (including residents and fellows in training) outside of the United States, the American Academy of Ophthalmology invites you to contribute to EyeWiki and compete for one of four annual prizes.

Winners can choose either the Academy’s Basic and Clinical Science™ (BCSC®) Complete Set eBook series or a two-year subscription to Focal Points™ Digital.

Simply write and submit an original, high-quality EyeWiki article before June 2, 2018, in any of the following four areas, and then add your entry to the discussion page:

- Cataract/Refractive Surgery/Cornea/Anterior Segment
- Retina/Vitreous/Uveitis/Oncology/Pathology
- Glaucoma/Neuro-Ophthalmology
- Pediatrics/Strabismus/Oculoplastics/Orbit
Ways to Support Your Academy

2017 ORBITAL GALA: Celebrate the Fun of Mardi Gras

Mardi Gras World
Sunday, Nov. 12 | 6 – 10 p.m.

Business/cocktail attire

Let the good times roll! Join the Academy Foundation for an evening of fun and fantasy in the heart of the Big Easy. This 14th annual fundraiser will be the social event of AAO 2017. Dine, dance, enjoy live entertainment, get great silent auction deals and see Mardi Gras floats up close. Proceeds will support the Academy’s educational, quality of care and service programs.

Purchase tickets at aao.org/foundation/gala-overview.

2017 Honoree: H. Dunbar Hoskins Jr., MD

A distinguished glaucoma specialist and the Academy’s executive vice president for 16 years (1993 – 2009), Dr. Hoskins is a champion of ophthalmic education, physician and patient advocacy, and technological innovation.

SURGICAL SCOPE FUND

The Academy’s Surgical Scope Fund, supported by confidential contributions from ophthalmologists, provides grants to state ophthalmological societies to support their legislative, regulatory and public education efforts. Contribute online or download a printable form (PDF 273KB) to fill out and send via fax or mail.

OPHTHPAC*

OPHTHPAC represents the profession of ophthalmology to the U.S. Congress and advocates for you, your practice and your patients. We are always looking for members who would like to take part in the political process and help build our relationships with members of Congress. If you are interested in becoming a congressional advocate, let us know and sign up today.

Learn more about the Surgical Scope Fund and OPHTHPAC by visiting the booth in Lobby B or the Advocacy desk in the Resource Center, booth 3140.

HELP YOUR COMMUNITY

EyeCare America® provides eye care to U.S. citizens and legal residents through volunteer ophthalmologists at no cost to those who qualify. Becoming an EyeCare America volunteer is a great way for YOs to give back to their communities. Learn more about this program and enroll today.
