Welcome From Purnima S. Patel, MD, 2018 YO Committee Chair

Dear Colleague,

I cordially invite you to attend AAO 2018 in Chicago, Oct. 27–30, the world’s most comprehensive ophthalmic meeting. The Academy’s annual meeting provides YOs with educational and networking opportunities to help you prepare for tomorrow’s clinical challenges. The annual meeting is the epicenter for the latest research, techniques and technologies — a truly can’t-miss event.

The exclusive education and resources for YOs at AAO 2018 is unparalleled. I encourage you to attend the 2018 YO Program, the premiere event for YOs. This two-part program will help you tackle your toughest clinical challenges — as well as topics not covered in residency and fellowships — and introduce you to strategies to successfully navigate your career. View the full 2018 YO Program description and schedule on pages 8–9 of this brochure.

Whether this is your first or fifth annual meeting, use this brochure to help guide your meeting experience. You’ll find listings of daily YO Lounge Power Hours offering expert consultations as well as course recommendations hand-selected by the YO Committee. Make the most of educational opportunities as well as social events including the Global YO Reception where you can celebrate and network with YOs from around the globe. Plus, take advantage of special discounts available only to YOs.

On behalf of the YO Committee, we look forward to seeing you in Chicago.

Sincerely,

Purnima S. Patel, MD
Young Ophthalmologist Committee Chair
Atlanta, Ga.

Publishing Opportunity for YOs

Get Published on EyeWiki and Win!

If you are an ophthalmology resident anywhere, or currently in a fellowship in the United States, the American Academy of Ophthalmology encourages you to take advantage of the phenomenal online publishing opportunity EyeWiki provides.

Questions? Email eyewiki@aoa.org.

U.S. YOs: Contribute to EyeWiki®, Win A Trip to Mid-Year Forum 2019

Four residents and/or fellows who contribute to EyeWiki before Dec. 1, 2018, will win all-expenses-paid trips to the Academy’s Mid-Year Forum 2019 in Washington, D.C., April 10-13. To enter the competition, simply write and submit a high-quality EyeWiki page in any of the following areas, and then add your entry by clicking the entry button at the top of the EyeWiki page:

• Cataract/Refractive Surgery/Cornea/Anterior Segment
• Retina/Vitreous/Uveitis
• Glaucoma/Neuro-Ophthalmology
• Pediatrics/Strabismus/Oculoplastics/Orbit

International YOs: Contribute to EyeWiki®, Win Academy Online Products

If you are an ophthalmologist (including residents and fellows in training) outside of the United States, the American Academy of Ophthalmology invites you to contribute to EyeWiki and compete for one of four annual prizes. Winners can choose either the Academy’s Basic and Clinical Science Course™ (BCSC®) complete eBook set or a two-year digital subscription to Focal Points®. Simply write and submit an original, high-quality EyeWiki article before June 2, 2019, in any of the following four areas, and then add your entry by clicking the entry button at the top of the EyeWiki page:

• Cataract/Refractive Surgery/Cornea/Anterior Segment
• Retina/Vitreous/Uveitis/Oncology/Pathology
• Glaucoma/Neuro-Ophthalmology

Ways to Support Your Academy

2018 ORBITAL GALA: Get Hip to the AAO 2019 Scene!

Chicago Cultural Center
Sunday, Oct. 28 | 6-10 p.m.
Business/cocktail/’60s-themed attire
YOIs save 50% off the regular ticketed price.

At the Academy Foundation’s 15th annual fundraiser, you can support our quest to protect sight and empower lives while showing off your favorite love beads and scarfing down far-out food and cocktails. Take your groovy moves to the dance floor and catch some live jams; or if that’s not your bag, check out our silent auction. Proceeds support Academy programs. Dig it?

Purchase tickets by Sept. 28 at aao.org/gala.

HELP UNDERSERVED PATIENTS

EyeCare America® provides eye care to U.S. citizens and legal residents through volunteer ophthalmologists, often with no out-of-pocket cost to those who qualify. Since 1985, the program has helped nearly 2 million people. As a volunteer, you can make a meaningful difference in the lives of these patients, with a minimal time commitment and without leaving your office. Learn more about the program and enroll today aao.org/volunteer.

EyeCare America® Volunteer Reception – Residents who have pledged to volunteer on entering practice are also invited to mingle and learn first-hand how satisfying the experience can be.

Join us at this reception on Sunday, 3 – 4:30 p.m., in the Museum of Vision, Booth 704. If you haven’t yet pledged to volunteer, you can do so at the Foundation desk in the Academy Resource Center, Booth 508.

SURGICAL SCOPE FUND

Preserving sight is the foundation of our profession. The changing political landscape and state legislatures across the country are putting eye care at risk. Through your confidential contributions to the Academy’s Surgical Scope Fund, we work tirelessly to ensure that patient safety and surgical standards are not compromised by legislating surgical privileges to healthcare practitioners who have not successfully completed the required education and clinical training to become ophthalmologists.

Contribute online and help ensure that your patients continue to have access to the highest quality of surgical eye care — Surgery by Surgeons.

OPHTHPAC

OPHTHPAC represents the profession of ophthalmology to the U.S. Congress and advocates for you, your practice and your patients. OPHTHPAC operates to protect you and your fellow ophthalmologists from burdensome regulations and unfair legislation, as well as to advance our profession by promoting funding for vision research and expanded inclusion of ophthalmology in public and private programs. OPHTHPAC is your federal voice in Washington, D.C. Help ensure our voice is heard — invest online today or text MDEYE to 41444. To learn more about OPHTHPAC, visit aao.org/ophthpac.
